

Project brief

Project Name	StudentHQ
Project Overview	A website where students can get notes, upload notes, access textbooks in pdf format, and link to YouTube videos organized by modules, receiving notifications about crucial events such as exam dates, getting informations about attendance, resolving questions, and gaining immediate access to numerous crucial websites, such as university websites (fees).
Target Audience	Students

Project brief

Project Name	RoamRanger
Project Overview	A website for calculating budgets (based on the number of people, transportation options, number of days, and destination), Trip preparation (based on budget, number of people, and destination), Finding people to accompany you, recommending destinations based on your interests, providing information about places to visit, and learning about current events at the destination are all examples of services. Details about hotels (rating and direct booking), nearby restaurants, hospitals, police stations, and automobile workshops, renting vehicles at the destination or directly hiring a cab, details about available guides (contact information), and discussing the trip with others.
Target Audience	Everyone

Project brief

Project Name	VirtuTech
Project Overview	A website that provides the contact information of nearby specialists for physical repair and allows users to quickly and easily fix minor issues with computers and mobile devices online
Target Audience	Everyone